To His Excellency the Dewan Bahadur of Mysore

The humble Memorial of retired Amildars Viz M. Shaik Ibrahim, R. Lutchmen Row, B. Lukshmiaranya, Chowdia &c the first named is residing behind the Mosque of the Nazerbath Mohulla Mysor City.

Most respectfully Sheweth

That the Memorialists beg leave to submit that in the Government Gazette of March 1893-Part 2 Page 214, it is notified that retired Munsiffs may be enrolled as Advocates of the Chief Court of Mysore, and the Memorialists about 8 years ago prayed for an amendment of it so as to allow retired Amildars also to have the same privilege—but nothing is finally decided as yet.

That it may be known that Munsiffs & Amildars both stand in equal status in service, consequently it is hoped that both will be equally treated

That if your Excellency were to observe any slight difference between them, retired Amildars if not now Advocates, may at least be allowed to become first grade Pleaders to begin with, and subsequently Advocates as per rules in force.

That in conclusion an Endorsement is most submissively craved for.

We beg to remain
Your Excellency's most obedient servants

M. Shaik Ibb
Secretary to the Committee of retired Amildars.
